Section Required Texts and Material:

Tu Mundo: Introductory Spanish 1 & 2 (Special Value Edition for NSU with Connect Access)

Authors: Magdalena Andrade, Jeanne Egasse & Elías Miguel Muñoz

Publisher: McGraw Hill

Publication Date: 2015

ISBN: 9781308515007

NOTE*:

McGraw Hill offers several packages:

1. If you prefer digital texts, you can purchase an online version of the textbook that ALSO includes the REQUIRED online Connect Plus Spanish w/Learnsmart (with WBLM) Access Card
2. If you have purchased a used textbook, and are missing the online component, you can purchase the Connect Plus Spanish w/Learnsmart (with WBLM) Access Card.

Please be aware of purchasing texts through online retailers. In the past, there have been issues with the following:

As a word of caution: If you purchase a used textbook, it may NOT allow you to complete the REQUIRED online textbook exercises for this course because the necessary access card – in almost all cases- does NOT- come with the used textbook. Some students have unfortunately ended up paying more for a used text and the online Connect Plus Spanish w/Learnsmart (with WBLM) Access Card than they would have for a new text.

For more information on pricing, contact McGraw Hill directly: 1800-331-5094

Failure to complete assignments because of a wrong text purchased or a text purchased late does not exempt you from the late work policy.

VII. Course Requirements

Academic Honesty: All essays MUST reflect the students' own work and ANY TYPE of outside assistance is NOT permitted. This includes and is not limited to: Classmates, tutors, online translators, roommates, and/or Spanish speaking friends are not allowed to edit any part of your written homework or compositions. Any student found to violate the previously mentioned criteria will automatically receive a grade of zero for the assignment. Should you have any questions regarding your writing, consult with your professor first.

PLAGIARISM: Academic Honesty: All class work (including examinations) MUST reflect the students' own work and ANY TYPE of outside assistance is NOT permitted. This includes and is not limited to: Classmates, tutors, online translators, roommates, and/or Spanish speaking friends or family are not allowed to edit and or complete ANY part of your classwork in the course.

Making statements such as, for example, "I didn't know how to say this." or "They only told me how to say this" does NOT excuse you from the Plagiarism statement above. Claiming ignorance of what constitutes plagiarism in this course does NOT excuse you from the penalties below.

Any student found to violate the previously mentioned criteria will automatically receive a grade of zero for the assignment in addition to receiving 10 points off of the final gradeaverage as well as have an academic misconduct form that is required by faculty to sent to the dean's office. The student may also fail the course. Other courses of action may be taken as well both by the professor and the dean's office. Should you have any questions regarding your writing, or coursework, consult with your professor first.

Note: You will not be asked to produce anything in the course that you are not capable of AFTER serious study and diligent practice.

ESSAYS (10%): There will be TWO assigned compositions throughout the semester. Compositions should reflect the grammar and vocabulary of the chapters covered. You will write TWO (2) short essays in Spanish during the course of the semester. These will be written in class, by hand, and be based on a specific topic provided by the professor. These written assignments should reflect the grammar and vocabulary of the chapters covered. Students will be allowed to use their textbooks and/or dictionaries when writing these assignments. These will be graded by the professor outside of class and then returned to the student.

ORAL INTERVIEW/ CONVERSATION (5%):

Spoken language and pronunciation will be evaluated. You will have a one on one interview with your professor during the second half of the semester OR you may have a group oral exam. More information on the interview will be provided during the semester.

If you miss your oral interviews, you will not be allowed to make any of them up, unless I have approved your documented excuse. You must contact me immediately via e-mail and present me with acceptable documentation of the missed oral interview in order for it to be made up. Presentation of documentation does not automatically imply an approval on my behalf. If your documented excuse has been approved by me, note that your grade for this assignment will minimally drop a letter grade.

ORAL PRESENTATION (5%):

Spoken language and pronunciation will be evaluated in a presentation (3-6 minutes). Your presentation will be based on general themes or topics treated in class. No make-ups. I will provide you with situations and or topics. Oral presentations will be scheduled in advance. Once you have picked your time slot you must adhere to it. Failure to meet the minimum time requirement will reduce your grade by 35 points. Make sure you practice and time yourself.

QUIZZES (20%):

There will be announced and/or unannounced quizzes throughout the semester. There will not be any make-ups for missed quizzes. Please note that if students are late to class and miss a quiz, they will not be allowed to make it up. It is your responsibility to come to class prepared and be ready to quiz in any of the material that has been covered in class.

EXAMS (42%):

There will be three cumulative written exams assessing your comprehension of the material discussed in class and covered in the workbook. They will cover all material previously handled, but will focus on the most recent chapters. No make-up exams or quizzes will be administered. Exams are not curved. There will be three (3) exams covering the following material: Exam 1 (Chapters 6-7); Exam 2 (Chapters 8-9); Exam 3 (Cumulative with emphasis on chapter 10).

HOMEWORK (TOTAL 15 %): All of your assignments for BOTH the Chapter Assignments and LearnSmart Activities are located in the McGraw Hill Website (Tu mundo Connect). Information on how to access assignments and their due dates are located in your IMPORTANT DOCUMENTS tab.

Chapter Assignments (12%):

NO LATE WORK WILL BE ACCEPTED. Plan ahead. Write down your due dates. You can find your due dates within the McGraw Hill Website (Tu mundo Connect).

All students need to purchase a McGraw Hill Centro access code (packaged with the textbook). All workbook assignments must be completed by the due date stated on the syllabus. You have 3 opportunities to get the right answer. You will also have the opportunity to have hints to gear you towards the right answer. The highest grade prevails. This is here to help you further practice the four cornerstones to learning a language: listening, speaking, reading, and writing.

Find the necessary information to sign up for this under the Important Documents Tab in Blackboard.

Activities range from individual recording activities to group recording activities as well as writing activities.

Students are advised to pay special attention to the specific grammatical components of each chapter, as well as the sections on vocabulary and culture. The student's daily homework consists of doing both the reading and the exercises under the Infórmate section of the chapter being covered (found at the end of each chapter).

In the Online Textbook, some assignments are automatically corrected, others may need to be corrected by your professor.

Written Assignments: In this course students will be given regular homework assignments that may come from your textbook IN ADDITION to your (LearnSmart and Chapter Assignments). You will have daily assignments listed sent to you, after class, via announcements. The subject line will have "Tarea: and the date the class met → Tarea: 1/06". Students will be expected to come prepared (i.e. have studied --not just read-- the assignments) to every class and participate actively by answering questions, taking part in activities, and speaking Spanish at all times. Students are advised to pay special attention to the specific grammatical components of each chapter, as well as the sections on vocabulary and culture.

The student's daily homework consists of doing both the reading and the exercises under the Students are advised to pay special attention to the specific grammatical components of each chapter, as well as the sections on vocabulary and culture. The student's daily homework consists of doing both the reading and the exercises under the Infórmate section of the chapter being covered (found at the end of each chapter).

These exercises as well as other assignments will be collected from time to time. The average of these assignments will comprise a grade under the Chapter Assignments umbrella.

Late assignments: Unless otherwise indicated, all homework assignments are due in class on the date listed on the syllabus. If the assignment is not handed in during class time: IT IS LATE. A late assignment is penalized one full letter grade for each calendar day that it is late; assignments later than two calendar days are not accepted at all and earn an F. Please note that your online exercises are EXEMPT from this; that is, all online assignments (LearnSmart and Chapter Assignments) must be completed on time. No exceptions. You have their due dates ahead of time. Make sure to keep up to date with these. The due dates for your online work (Tu mundo Connect) are located within the McGraw Hill website. There will be more information on your online textbook and workbook assignments in the HOMEWORK section of the syllabus.

Online Workbook (LearnSmart) (3%):

NO LATE WORK WILL BE ACCEPTED. Plan ahead. Write down your due dates. You can find your due dates within the McGraw Hill website.

This section is graded on completion of the assignment. I highly recommend you complete this prior to beginning each chapter or at the very beginning. It will highlight what you may already know or grasp well and at the same time, it will point out some challenge areas. Most students find this incredibly helpful!

Find the necessary information to sign up for this under the Important Documents Tab in Blackboard.

Access Code for McGraw Hill (Tu mundo Connect)

All students need to purchase a McGraw Hill Centro access code (packaged with the textbook). All workbook assignments must be completed by the due date stated on the syllabus.

Again, direct any technical issue to McGraw Hill (Tu mundo Connect). Plan ahead to be prepared for any glitches. Complete your work 1 day in advance for any unforeseen technical difficulties.

MAKE SURE TO READ THE NOTE BELOW on late online text/workbook assignments*

IMPORTANT

Late homework for your ONLINE WORKBOOK AND TEXTBOOK is NOT accepted and a GRADE of ZERO will be assigned. Always refer to MHC CENTRO for all due dates.**

PARTICIPATION (3%)

Participation is based, in part, on your DAILY active contributions more than once per class. To be called upon by the professor is not participation.

Your participation involves a number of variables, including, but not limited to the following:

- Your use of Spanish in the classroom

- greeting people and taking leave using Spanish

- using Spanish during class (i.e. with instructor and in small groups), when asking and

- responding to questions related (or not related) to the material at hand, and when engaged in casual conversation with classmates or instructor.

- Your willingness to participate in all class activities

- Your cooperation during group and pair-work

- Your respect and attitude toward your instructor, the class, and toward your peers

Participation-Class Decorum: Students are expected to attend class each day with the required reading and/or writing assignments completed. All cell phones and electronic devices MUST be silenced and stowed away during class. Students who are caught texting, chatting and/or otherwise engaged in any kind of disruptive behavior due to a technological device, will have points deducted from his/her FINAL GRADE will be asked to leave the classroom. You are responsible for all work missed and or collected during that time. If you are asked to leave, it will count as ONE absence.

Attendance: Attendance at classes is MANDATORY.

Students in day classes that meet TWICE a week are permitted no more than 2 “free” absences.

Students in day classes missing 3 classes over the course of the semester will receive a ½ (5 pts) letter grade deduction from the final course grade. Students in day classes missing 4 classes will receive a full one-letter grade (10 pts) deduction from their final course grade. Students in day classes missing 5 classes or more will result in failure of the course REGARDLESS of grade average. Students may miss class for a religious holiday, but no sessions beyond the holiday itself. Student athletes, and students involved in other official University organizations should choose their schedules carefully, so as not to let their extracurricular activity interfere with the work of this class. Students should establish practice, game, and event schedules in advance of the semester before choosing classes.

LATE: Early departures from the class will also follow late arrival policy. BE ON TIME and STAY!

Students are expected to arrive on time. THREE late arrivals will count as ONE absence. BE ON

TIME!

Blackboard: Although we will not use all the features available on Blackboard, students will need to check the course’s Blackboard site DAILY for announcements, homework assignments, and to download material posted by the professor. For example, powerpoints and handouts are typically posted on Blackboard (in the Content Tab) for students to access before or after class. Students should become familiar with the Blackboard site early on as it is an important part of this course and almost all NSU courses. You are expected to check your course messages daily for your homework and important updates.

NOTE:

1. As listed on the first page, we will exclusively use COURSE MESSAGES. Please do not send me an e-mail.
2. Course Messages will be responded to as soon as possible Monday- Friday during business hours.
3. You may want to download the Blackboard app on to your mobile device. You will automatically be alerted to any announcements posted. You will however need to log in to check for course messages.

VIII. Course Schedule and Topic Outline

Topic Outline:

- This syllabus makes reference to each chapter’s main vocabulary and communicative sections as well as the corresponding grammar. Grammar explanations appear at the end of each chapter in the Infórmate section. Students are expected to study both the main chapter pages and the grammar sections (Infórmate) before coming to class. Students are also expected to complete all homework exercises before class. This syllabus is subject to modification, but not without prior notification by the professor.
- To access the actual assignments you need to go to McGraw Hill to find your due dates and assignments for your online Chapter Assignments and LearnSmart.

Course calendar: This schedule is subject to change. Any necessary change will be announced ahead of time

X. Course Policies

Academic Integrity:

XI. University Policies

Students should visit <http://www.nova.edu/academic-affairs/nsu-syllabus-policy.html> to access additional required college-wide policies. It is your responsibility to access and carefully read these policies to ensure you are fully informed. As a student in this class, you are obligated to follow these college-wide policies in addition to the policies established by your instructor.

The following policies are described on this website:

- Academic misconduct
- Last day to withdraw
- Email policy
- Student course evaluations
- Student responsibility to register
- Student responsibility for course prerequisites

Academic Resources

Nova Southeastern University offers a variety of resources that may aid in student success. Among these resources are:

Accommodations for students with documented disabilities: For more information about ADA policy, services, and procedures, students may call the Office of Student Disability Services at 954-262-7189 or visit <http://www.nova.edu/disabilityservices>.

Tutoring and testing center:

Students are encouraged to use the free, individualized tutoring services offered by the Tutoring and Testing Center (TTC). TTC provides a supportive atmosphere in which tutors and students work collaboratively on improving students' writing, math and/or science skills. <http://www.nova.edu/tutoring-testing/index.html>
